

Accents

Musical notation examples for various articulations in 4/4 time, organized into five staves. Each staff contains two measures of music.

Marcato: The first measure shows four quarter notes with upward-pointing accents (^). The second measure shows four quarter notes, each with an upward-pointing accent (^).

Accent: The first measure shows four quarter notes with upward-pointing accents (^). The second measure shows four quarter notes with upward-pointing accents (^).

Tenuto: The first measure shows four quarter notes with horizontal lines below them. The second measure shows four quarter notes with horizontal lines above them.

Staccato: The first measure shows four quarter notes with dots below them. The second measure shows four quarter notes with dots above them.

Slur: The first measure shows four quarter notes connected by a slur. The second measure shows four quarter notes connected by a slur.